

Jehmal T. Hudson, Chairman
Virginia State Corporation Commission

Judge Hudson was educated at the Adelphi University and earned his law degree from the Vermont Law School. Prior to being appointed to the Commission, he served in various roles at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for more than 10 years, including director of government affairs. Most recently, he served as vice president of government affairs for the National Hydropower Association. His service as an SCC Commissioner began in 2020.